

Cody Kilgore, cont.

This class is shaping up to be very handy, and very practical. Through this class I am learning how to better present a Bible class. We have received great instruction and are receiving great opportunities to practice these things during our class time. This class, I am certain, will aid me in my ministry.

I love you, and I will continue to remember you in my prayers. May the grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

In Him, Cody Kilgore

Jonathan Lopez:

Peace and joy be multiplied in you.

My dear brethren, it is once again my privilege to write you concerning my journey at SW. I pray that this letter finds you all doing well in your faithful service to the Lord. I would first like to thank you for the prayers on our behalf. I am beyond blessed and very grateful for your decision to support me during my 2-year Biblical studies and Southwest; I realize the importance of your choice, and it is not one which take for granted.

Above all, I thank God, our Father, who has blessed me with encouraging and committed brethren such as yourselves!

We have finished attending another excellent and successful year at Focal Point, which I pray enriched many. We are entering our second month of the 4th Quarter. Our next upcoming event it a workshop in Bryan, TX for men's development. I am confident that this workshop will help me and other men to be better leaders in the Lord's kingdom. Next month several of us will be attending another week full of spiritual nourishment at Camp Hensel. I, as well as two other students, will have the opportunity to put our talents to use a Campo Ida in Texarkana. Friends, pray for our safe travels, as well the strength to finish our 1st year strong and be better equipped for the journey that awaits us next year.

Beloved, thank you once more for your support in the way which way you provide! I know, and I am always reminded of how great your love is! Not for me alone, but for God also, in that it's shown through your works! You are still in my prayers and shall continue to be. Please pray for brother Walker, as he is in the hospital at the moment. Keep fighting the good fight, and stand firm in the faith, always.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ overflow in you all,

Order of Service
